Dear :

This letter responds to a letter dated July 16, 2003, requesting a ruling on behalf of Corporation under § 1362(b)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Shareholders incorporated Corporation in State on Date 1. It is represented that Corporation intended to be taxed as an S corporation since Date 1, and that Corporation executed a Form 2553 (Election by a Small Business Corporation) on Date 1. Corporation further represents that Corporation and Shareholders filed their federal tax returns for Corporation 's first taxable year beginning on Date 1, consistent with the treatment of Corporation as an S corporation. Corporation has discovered that the Internal Revenue Service has no record of Corporation filing the Form 2553 (Election by a Small Business Corporation).

Corporation requests a ruling that its § 1362(b) election will be treated as timely made for its taxable year that begins on Date 1.

Section 1362(a) generally provides that a small business corporation may elect to be an S corporation.

Section 1362(b)(1) provides that an election under § 1362(a) may be made by a small business corporation for any taxable year -- (A) at any time during the preceding taxable year, or (B) at any time during the taxable year and on or before the 15th day of the 3rd month of the taxable year.

Section 1362(b)(3) provides that if -- (A) a small business corporation makes an election under § 1362(a) for any taxable year, and (B) such election is made after the 15th day of the 3rd month of the taxable year and on or before the 15th day of the 3rd month of the following taxable year, then such election shall be treated as made for the following taxable year.

Section 1362(b)(5) provides that if an election under § 1362(a) is made for any taxable year (determined without regard to § 1362(b)(3)), after the date prescribed by § 1362(b) for making the election or no election is made for any taxable year, and the Secretary determines that there was reasonable cause for the failure to timely make such election, then the Secretary may treat such election as timely made for such taxable year and § 1362(b)(3) shall not apply.

Based on the facts submitted and representations made, we conclude that Corporation has established reasonable cause for failing to make a timely election pursuant to § 1362(b)(5). Accordingly, Corporation's late election under § 1362(a) is to be treated under § 1362(b)(5) as filed timely for its tax year beginning Date 1. This ruling is contingent, however, on Corporation (1) obtaining the consent of all shareholders, current and former; and (2) filing a completed Form 2553, containing an effective date of Date 1 for the election, with the appropriate Service Center within 60 days following the date of this letter. A copy of this letter should be attached to the Form 2553 filed with the Service Center. A copy is enclosed for that purpose.

Except as specifically set forth above, we express or imply no opinion concerning the federal tax consequences of the facts described above under any other provision of the Internal Revenue Code. Specifically, we express or imply no opinion concerning whether Corporation is an S corporation for federal tax purposes.

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer who requested it. Section 6110(k)(3) of the Code provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent.

Sincerely yours,

/s/
