This responds to your authorized representative's letter dated September 7, 2000, requesting, on behalf of the taxpayers identified above, an extension of time under §§ 301.9100-1 through 301.9100-3 of the Procedure and Administration Regulations to file an election. Parent and Sellers are requesting an extension to file a "§ 338(h)(10) election" under §§ 338(g) and 338(h)(10) of the Internal Revenue Code and § 1.338(h)(10)-1(d) of the Income Tax Regulations with respect to Purchaser's acquisition of the stock of Target (the "Election") on Date B. All citations in this letter to regulations under § 338 are to the regulations as in effect on Date B. We received additional information in letters dated December 11, 2000 and January 9, 2001. The material information is summarized below.

Parent is the common parent of a consolidated group that has a calendar taxable year and uses the accrual method of accounting. Purchaser is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent and is included in Parent's consolidated income tax return. Prior to the transaction described below, Target was an S corporation within the meaning of § 1361 and was wholly owned by Sellers. Target had a calendar taxable year and used the cash method of accounting. Target did not have any subsidiaries.

PLR-117620-00

On Date A, Purchaser and Sellers entered into a Share Purchase Agreement for Purchaser to acquire all of Sellers' Target stock. On Date B, Purchaser acquired all of Sellers' Target stock, pursuant to the Share Purchase Agreement, for cash and a contingent obligation to pay additional consideration if a § 338(h)(10) election was made in a fully taxable transaction. Following the acquisition, "new" Target was included in Parent's consolidated group as a C corporation. It is represented that (1) neither Parent nor Purchaser was related to Sellers within the meaning of § 338(h)(3), and (2) Purchaser's acquisition of the stock of Target qualified as a "qualified stock purchase," as defined in § 338(d)(3).

Parent and Sellers intended to file the Election. The Election was due on Date C. However, for various reasons, a valid Election was not filed. On Date D (which is after the due date for the Election), Tax Professional discovered that the Election had not been properly filed. Subsequently, this request was submitted under § 301.9100-1 for an extension of time to file the Election. The period of limitations on assessments under § 6501(a) has not expired for Parent's (and its related entities'), Target's or any of the Sellers' taxable year(s) in which the acquisition occurred, the taxable years in which the Election should have been filed, or any taxable years that the Election would have affected had it been timely filed. Furthermore, the Service has not examined the applicable taxable years and has not discovered that the Election was not timely made.

Section 338(a) permits certain stock purchases to be treated as asset acquisitions if: (1) the purchasing corporation makes or is treated as having made a "§ 338 election" under § 338(g); and (2) the acquisition is a "qualified stock purchase." Section 1.338-1(c)(10) provides that a "§ 338 election" is an election to apply § 338(a) to the target corporation. Section 1.338(h)(10)-1(d)(3) provides that if a § 338(h)(10) election is made for the target corporation, a "§ 338 election" is deemed made for the target corporation. Section 338(d)(3) defines a "qualified stock purchase" as any transaction or series of transactions in which stock (meeting the requirements of § 1504(a)(2)) of one corporation is acquired by another corporation by purchase during the 12-month acquisition period.

Section 338(h)(3)(A) provides that the term "purchase" means any acquisition of stock, but only if: (i) the basis of the stock in the hands of the purchasing corporation is not determined (I) in whole or in part by reference to the adjusted basis of such stock in the hands of the person from whom acquired, or (II) under § 1014(a) (relating to property acquired from a decedent); (ii) the stock is not acquired in an exchange to which § 351, 354, 355, or 356 applies and is not acquired in any other transaction described in regulations in which the transferor does not recognize the entire amount of the gain or loss realized on the transaction; and (iii) the stock is not acquired from a person the ownership of whose stock would, under § 318(a) (other than paragraph (4) thereof), be attributed to the person acquiring such stock.

Section 338(h)(10) permits the purchasing and selling corporations to elect jointly to treat the target corporation as deemed to sell all of its assets and distribute the proceeds in complete liquidation. The sale of stock included in the qualified stock purchase generally is ignored. A § 338(h)(10) election may be made for the target corporation only if it is a member of a selling consolidated group, a member of a selling affiliated group filing separate returns, or an S corporation. Section 1.338(h)(10)-1(a). Gain or loss on the deemed sale is included in the consolidated return of the selling group (unless the target corporation is a member of a selling affiliated group filing separate returns or an S corporation). Section 1.338(h)(10)-1(d) provides that a § 338(h)(10) election may be made for the target corporation if the purchasing corporation makes a "qualified stock purchase" of the target corporation stock. Section 1.338(h)(10)-1(d)(3) provides that if a § 338(h)(10) election is made for the target corporation, it is irrevocable.

Section 1.338(h)(10)-1(d)(2) provides that a § 338(h)(10) election is jointly made by a purchaser and the selling consolidated group (or the selling affiliate or the S corporation shareholders) on Form 8023 in accordance with the instructions to the form. The regulations further provide that the election must be made not later than the fifteenth day of the ninth month beginning after the month in which the acquisition date occurs. The instructions to Form 8023 provide that a § 338(h)(10) election must be made jointly by the purchasing corporation and the common parent of the selling consolidated group (or selling affiliate or S corporation shareholders). The instructions provide that the form must be signed by a person authorized to act on behalf of each corporation, and if made for an S corporation it must be signed by each S corporation shareholder who sells target stock in the qualified stock purchase. The instructions further provide that the signatures, dates and titles (if applicable) of those persons must be provided in a "signature attachment," and they provide specific details as to the preparation of the "signature attachment" and its attachment to Form 8023.

Section 1.1502-77(a) provides that the common parent, for all purposes (other than for several purposes not relevant here), shall be the sole agent for each subsidiary in the group, duly authorized to act in its own name in all matters relating to the tax liability for the consolidated return year. See also Form 8023 and the instructions thereto.

Under § 301.9100-1(c), the Commissioner has discretion to grant a reasonable extension of time to make a regulatory election, or a statutory election (but no more than six months except in the case of a taxpayer who is abroad), under all subtitles of the Internal Revenue Code except subtitles E, G, H and I.

Section 301.9100-1(b) defines the term "regulatory election" as including an election whose due date is prescribed by a regulation, revenue ruling, revenue procedure, notice, or announcement. Sections 301.9100-1 through 301.9100-3 provide the standards the Commissioner will use to determine whether to grant an extension of time to make a regulatory election. Section 301.9100-1(a). Section 301.9100-2 provides automatic extensions of time for making certain elections. Requests for relief under § 301.9100-3 will be granted when the taxpayer provides evidence to establish that the taxpayer acted reasonably and in good faith, and that granting relief will not prejudice the interests of the government. Section 301.9100-3(a).

In this case, the time for filing the Election is fixed by the regulations (i.e., § 1.338(h)(10)-1(d)). Therefore, the Commissioner has discretionary authority under § 301.9100-1 to grant an extension of time for Parent and Sellers to file the Election, provided Parent and Sellers show they acted reasonably and in good faith, the requirements of §§ 301.9100-1 and 301.9100-3 are satisfied, and granting relief will not prejudice the interests of the government.

Information, affidavits, and representations submitted by Parent, Purchaser, Company Official, Tax Professional, Sellers and Authorized Representatives explain the circumstances that resulted in the failure to timely file a valid Election. The information establishes that the taxpayers have not filed returns that are inconsistent with the Election, that their returns have not yet been examined, and that the Service has not discovered that the Election has not been filed. The information also establishes that a competent tax professional was responsible for the Election and was aware of all relevant facts, that Parent and Sellers relied on the tax professional to make the Election, and that the interests of the government will not be prejudiced if relief is granted. See §§ 301.9100-3(b)(1)(i) and (v).

Based on the facts and information submitted, including the representations made, we conclude that Parent and Sellers have shown they acted reasonably and in good faith, the requirements of §§ 301.9100-1 and 301.9100-3 are satisfied, and granting relief will not prejudice the interests of the government. Accordingly, an extension of time is granted under § 301.9100-1, until 30 days from the date of issuance of this letter, for Parent and Sellers to file the Election with respect to the acquisition of the stock of Target, as described above.

The above extension of time is conditioned on: (1) within 120 days from the date of issuance of this letter, Parent and each of the Sellers filing (to the extent they have not already so filed) all applicable returns (and/or amended returns) necessary to take a reporting position that is consistent with the Election; and (2) the taxpayers' (Sellers', Parent's consolidated group and Target's) tax liability (if any) being not lower, in the aggregate, for all years to which the Election applies, than it would have been if the Election had been timely made (taking into account the time value of money). No opinion is expressed as to the taxpayers' tax liability for the years involved. A determination thereof will be made upon audit of the Federal income tax returns involved. Further, no opinion is expressed as to the Federal income tax effect, if any, if it is determined that the taxpayers' liability is lower. Section 301.9100-3(c).

Parent and Sellers must file the Election in accordance with § 1.338(h)(10)-1(d). That is, an Election on Form 8023 must be executed on or after the date of this letter, which grants an extension, and filed in accordance with the instructions to the form. A copy of this letter should be attached to the election form. Parent and each of the

Sellers must file or amend, as applicable, their returns to report the transaction as a § 338(h)(10) transaction for the year in which the transaction was consummated (to the extent they have not already so filed), and/or attach to the return a copy of this letter and a copy of the Election.

We express no opinion as to (1) whether the acquisition/sale of Target stock qualifies as a "qualified stock purchase" under § 338(d)(3); (2) whether the acquisition/sale of Target stock qualifies for § 338(h)(10) treatment; (3) if assuming § 338(h)(10) is applicable, the amount and character of gain or loss, if any, recognized on Target's deemed asset sales and deemed liquidation; or (4) whether Target is an S corporation.

In addition, we express no opinion as to the tax consequences of filing the Election late under the provisions of any other section of the Code and regulations, or as to the tax treatment of any conditions existing at the time of, or resulting from, filing the Election late that are not specifically set forth in the above ruling. For purposes of granting relief under § 301.9100-1, we relied on certain statements and representations made by the taxpayers. However, all essential facts are subject to verification. In addition, notwithstanding that an extension is granted under § 301.9100-1 to file the Election, penalties and interest that would otherwise be applicable, if any, continue to apply.

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer(s) requesting it. Section 6110(k)(3) of the Code provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent.

In accordance with the Power of Attorney on file with this office, a copy of this letter is being sent to your authorized representative.

Sincerely,
Associate Chief Counsel (Corporate)
