The rulings contained in this letter are based on facts and representations submitted by the taxpayer and accompanied by a penalties of perjury statement executed by an appropriate party. This Office has not verified any of the materials submitted in support of the request for rulings. Verification of the information, representations, and other data may be required as part of the audit process. Moreover, no information provided by the taxpayer has been reviewed and no determination has been made regarding whether the proposed transaction: (i) satisfies the business purpose requirement of § 1.355-2(b) of the Income Tax Regulations, (ii) is used principally as a device for the distribution of the earnings and profits of the distributing corporation or the controlled corporation or both (see § 355(a)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code and § 1.355-2(d)), or (iii) is part of a plan (or series of related transactions) pursuant to which one or more persons will acquire directly or indirectly stock representing a 50-percent or greater interest in the distributing corporation or the controlled corporation (see § 355(e)(2)(A)(ii) and § 1.355-7T).

The information submitted for consideration is summarized below.

Summary of Facts

Distributing 3 is a domestic, publicly traded corporation that has served as the common parent of a group of corporations filing a U.S. consolidated tax return which includes Sub 1, Sub 2, Sub 3, Distributing 1 and Distributing 2. Distributing 3 has a single class of common stock outstanding. Each outstanding share of common stock possesses one preferred share purchase right. The right is not exercisable, however, until #AAA days after a person or group acquires or announces a tender offer that would result in the ownership of #BBB percent or more of Distributing 3's outstanding common stock.

Certain employees of Distributing 3 and its subsidiaries hold stock subject to certain restrictions ("Restricted Stock") that was issued by Distributing 3 pursuant to its existing and prior equity participation plans. Under the terms of the Distributing 3 plans, holders of Restricted Stock are entitled to receive dividends (including without limitation dividends payable in shares of stock) to the same extent as holders of unrestricted shares of Distributing 3 common stock.

Distributing 3 has regularly paid quarterly dividends every year since Date 1. The dividends are typically paid on or about the #CCC business day of Month AA, Month BB, Month CC and Month DD. Distributing 3 also has a stock repurchase program which entitles Distributing 3 to purchase up to #DDD percent of its outstanding stock. In Date 2, Distributing 3 adopted plans enabling it to purchase shares of its stock on the open market every day of the year.

Distributing 3, either directly or indirectly through its subsidiaries, engages in Business A throughout the world. The ownership and businesses of each of the entities involved in the transaction are as follows.

Distributing 3 conducts Business B and Business C. Distributing 3 owns all of the outstanding stock of Sub 1, Sub 2 and Distributing 1, all of which are domestic corporations. Sub 1 acts as a holding company. Sub 2 is engaged in Business D. Distributing 1 is engaged in Business E and Business F.

Distributing 3 owns all of the outstanding common stock of Distributing 2, a domestic corporation with outstanding common stock and nonparticipating preferred stock. Sub 1 owns all of the outstanding preferred stock of Distributing 2. Distributing 2 is engaged in Business G. In addition to conducting Business G, Distributing 2 owns almost all of the Asset BB used by Distributing 3 and its various U.S. subsidiaries, funds all future Asset BB development, and bears all associated entrepreneurial risk with respect to Asset BB.

Distributing 2 owns all of the outstanding stock of Sub 3, a domestic corporation. Sub 3 owns all of the outstanding stock of FSub 1. FSub 1 owns all of the stock of FSub 2. FSub 2 owns all of the outstanding stock of FSub 3. FSub 3 is engaged in Businesses H, I and J. FSub 1, FSub 2 and FSub 3 are all Country X corporations.

Distributing 3's management has determined that it no longer wishes to focus on, and invest time, money and its other corporate resources in, Businesses C, D, E, H, I, and J. In order to enhance the fit and focus of the core businesses conducted by Distributing 3 and its subsidiaries, Distributing 3 has decided to engage in the following transactions (hereinafter referred to as the "Proposed Transactions"):

1. Distributing 1 has created Controlled 1, a domestic corporation, and will transfer to it the assets and employees associated with Business E solely in exchange for Controlled 1 stock and the assumption of liabilities associated with the transferred assets (the "First Contribution").
2. Distributing 1 will distribute all of Controlled 1's outstanding stock to Distributing 3 (the "First Distribution").
3. Distributing 2 has formed Controlled 2, a domestic corporation, as a wholly owned subsidiary. Controlled 2 will have solely common stock outstanding.

4. Controlled 2 will form FSub 4, a company formed under one of the Provinces of Country X. Because FSub 4 is a foreign entity and its shareholder has unlimited liability, FSub 4 will be treated as a disregarded entity wholly owned by Controlled 2 for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Treas. Reg. § 301.7701-3(b)(2)(i)(C).
5. Controlled 2 will borrow $X from unrelated lenders.
6. Distributing 2 will contribute $Y to Controlled 2.
7. Controlled 2 will contribute $Z to FSub 4.
8. FSub 4 will purchase all of the assets and hire the employees associated with Businesses H, I and J from FSub 3 in exchange for $Z and the assumption of the liabilities associated with Businesses H, I and J. Because FSub 4 is treated as a disregarded entity that is wholly owned by Controlled 2, Controlled 2 will be considered to conduct Businesses H, I and J after the purchase.
9. Distributing 2 will contribute to Controlled 2 Business K that Controlled 2 will use in its business in exchange for stock or as a capital contribution (the "Second Contribution").
10. Distributing 2 will distribute all of the outstanding stock of Controlled 2 to its common shareholder, Distributing 3 (the "Second Distribution"). No portion of the Controlled 2 stock will be distributed on, or with respect to, the preferred stock, all of which is held by Sub 1. As a result, Sub 1 will not receive any stock in the Second Distribution.
11. Distributing 3 will contribute Business C to Controlled 2 in exchange for stock or as a capital contribution (the "Third Contribution").
12. Distributing 3 will contribute all of the outstanding stock of Sub 2 to Controlled 2 either in exchange for stock or as a capital contribution (the "Fourth Contribution").
13. Distributing 3 will contribute all of the outstanding stock of Controlled 1 to Controlled 2 either in exchange for stock or as a capital contribution (the "Fifth Contribution").
14. Distributing 3 will distribute all of the outstanding stock of Controlled 2 to its public shareholders (the "Third Distribution"), including the holders of the Restricted Stock. Distributing 3 will not distribute its own cash in lieu of fractional shares. Instead, Distributing 3 will aggregate the fractional shares that each shareholder would otherwise be entitled to receive and will sell them in the public market via a distribution agent. The aggregate net cash proceeds of these sales will be distributed ratably to those stockholders who would otherwise have received fractional shares of Controlled 2 common stock.

Distributing 3 (and its subsidiaries) and Controlled 2 (and its subsidiaries) have entered into an agreement for the provision of various transitional services. In addition, the parties have entered into a tax-sharing agreement, an employee matters agreement, a shared facilities agreement and a Continuing Contract A1 agreement which are not expected to be merely transitional in nature. The First Distribution, Second Distribution and Third Distribution are referred to collectively as the "Distributions".
