Dear :

This letter responds to your letter dated September 8, 1999, and subsequent correspondence, written on behalf of X, requesting a ruling under § 1362(b)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The information submitted states that X was incorporated on D1 of Year 1. A and B, the shareholders of X, intended for X to be an S corporation beginning in Year 1, X's first taxable year. X relied on its accountant to file all the necessary forms for X to be an S corporation. However, a Form 2553, Election by a Small Business Corporation, for Year 1, was not timely filed for X. For Year 1, X originally filed a Form 1120S, U.S. Income Tax Return for an S Corporation, and subsequently, upon its accountant's advice, filed a Form 1120, U.S. Corporation Tax Return. For Year 1, X's shareholders filed Forms 1040, U.S. Individual Income Tax Return, consistent with X being an S corporation.

X agrees to amend its tax return consistent with the treatment of X as an S corporation for X's Year 1 taxable year.

Section 1362(b)(5) of the Code provides that if -- (A) an election under § 1362(a) is made for any taxable year after the date prescribed by § 1362(b) for making such election for such taxable year or no such election is made for any taxable year, and (B) the Secretary determines that there was reasonable cause for the failure to timely make such election, the Secretary may treat such an election as timely made for such taxable year.

Based solely on the facts and the representations submitted, we conclude that X has established reasonable cause for failing to make a timely election to be an S corporation for X's first taxable year. Accordingly, provided that X makes an election to be an S corporation by filing a completed Form 2553 with the appropriate service center effective for its Year 1 taxable year, within 60 days following the date of this letter, then such election will be treated as timely made for X's Year 1 taxable year. A copy of this letter should be attached to the Form 2553.

Except as specifically set forth above, no opinion is expressed concerning the federal tax consequences of the facts described above under any other provision of the Code, including whether X was or is a small business corporation under § 1361(b) of the Code.

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer who requested it. Section 6110(k)(3) of the Code provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent.

Pursuant to a power of attorney on file with this office, a copy of this letter is being sent to X.

Sincerely yours,

H. GRACE KIM
