Dear :

This letter is in response to a letter dated July 29, 1999, and subsequent correspondence, submitted on behalf of  $\underline{X}$  by its authorized representative, requesting a ruling under § 1362(b)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The information submitted states that  $\underline{X}$  was incorporated on  $\underline{D1}$ .  $\underline{A}$  is the sole shareholder and president of  $\underline{X}$ .  $\underline{A}$  intended that  $\underline{X}$  elect to be an S corporation beginning Year 1, its first taxable year. The Resolutions adopted by  $\underline{X}$  on  $\underline{D2}$  state that the shareholders of  $\underline{X}$  may elect to have  $\underline{X}$  be treated as an S corporation and that a Form 2553, Election by a Small Business Corporation, be prepared and filed with the Internal Revenue Service for this purpose.  $\underline{A}$  believed that a Form 2553 had been filed with the Internal Revenue Service by  $\underline{X}$ 's attorneys. However, no Form 2553 was submitted to the Internal Revenue Service. For Year 1,  $\underline{X}$  filed a Form 1120S, U.S. Income Tax Return for an S Corporation.  $\underline{A}$  also reported all the information contained on the 1120S for Year 1 on  $\underline{A}$ 's personal tax return for Year 1.

Section 1362(b)(5) of the Code provides that if -- (A) an election under § 1362(a) is made for any taxable year after the date prescribed by § 1362(b) such election for such taxable year or no such election is made for any taxable year, and (B) the Secretary determines that there was reasonable cause for the failure to timely make such election, the Secretary may treat such an election as timely made for such taxable year.

Based solely on the facts and the representations submitted, we conclude that  $\underline{X}$  has established reasonable cause for failing to make a timely election to be an S corporation for  $\underline{X}$ 's Year 1 taxable year. Accordingly, provided that  $\underline{X}$  makes an election to be an S corporation by filing a completed Form 2553 with the appropriate service center effective for its Year 1 taxable year, within 60 days following the date of this letter, then such election will be treated as timely made for  $\underline{X}$ 's Year 1 taxable year. A copy of this letter should be attached to the Form 2553.

Except as specifically set forth above, no opinion is expressed concerning the federal tax consequences of the facts described above under any other provision of the Code, including whether  $\underline{X}$  was or is a small business corporation under § 1361(b) of the Code

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer requesting it. Section 6110(k)(3) of the Code provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent.

In accordance with the Power of Attorney on file with this office, a copy of this letter is being sent to  $\underline{X}$ 's authorized representative.

Sincerely yours,

J. THOMAS HINES
